

Meet Your Personal Agent

A few simple answers are enough to make the agent feel like yours.

About 3 minutes • No technical knowledge needed • Never include passwords or account codes

THE REST IS HANDLED FOR YOU

These answers personalize the agent. Capabilities, safety rules and technical setup use our standard system.

1 Who will the agent serve?

Your name, your company name, or both.

2 What should the agent call you?

For example: Bo, Dr. Patel, Alex, or The Brightside Team.

3 What would you like to name the agent?

Choose any name that feels natural to work with every day.

4 Who or what should inspire the agent's character?

A real person, fictional character, philosophy, archetype—or your own description.

5 What qualities should the agent take from that inspiration?

For example: thoughtful, direct, proactive, dependable, context-aware and confident.

6 How should the agent communicate with you?

For example: concise and direct; like a trusted colleague, with explanations before decisions.

OPTIONAL — WHAT WOULD YOU LOVE HELP WITH?

Tell us anything that would help the agent understand your world. You might mention projects you are working on, services you provide, personal responsibilities, recurring tasks, goals, research, follow-ups, bookings, emails—or the work you wish someone capable would simply take off your plate.

The optional section may be blank. Your agent can learn your projects and preferences over time.
